Soft Ceramic: Die Casting's Best Kept Secret

For long-lasting performance and value, our ceramic ladle cups are die casting's best kept secret. Made from alumina-silica composition, these cups are ideal for high-temperature applications such as zinc and aluminum casting.

- Available in all cup sizes and configurations
- Lightweight, low density materials
- Operating temperatures to 1204 degrees C

Download product information